La Vicomté, Grande Réserve IGP Pays d'Oc, IGP Pays d'Oc, Rouge, 2025

IGP Pays d'Oc, France

This vineyard stretches from south of Gignac to the village of Saint Pons de Mauchiens, near Pézenas, a small hilly region set against the northern flank of the Aumelas plateau along the left bank of the Hérault. The wines are strongly influenced by the environment of the Hérault valley, where the river plays an important role in the thermal regulation of the area.

WINEMAKING

The grapes are harvested when ripe. They are vinified variety by variety, with long vatting periods of 2 to 3 weeks. The aim is to achieve optimum extraction without dry tannins. After malolactic fermentation, the wines are kept in concrete vats for natural clarification. The wines are blended at the last moment with oaked bases.
