Its vineyard rests on limestone and clay soils, offering perfect conditions for Pinot Noir. TASTING

This Santenay Comme Dessus from Domaine Denis Fouquerand expresses a charming Pinot Noir, both accessible and distinctive. Its deep ruby robe precedes a delicate nose of black cherry, redcurrant, and wild strawberry, enriched with floral notes and a subtle smoky hint. On the palate, the attack is supple and juicy, carried by elegant freshness and fine tannins that ensure balance. The finish is gourmand and persistent, revealing fruity and spicy accents characteristic of this Côte de Beaune terroir.

FOOD PAIRINGS

With its roundness and elegance, this Santenay red pairs beautifully with herb-roasted poultry, duck breast with cranberries, or roast veal. Its fruity and velvety expression also elevates convivial cuisine such as homemade lasagna, duck parmentier, or summer barbecues. For a regional match, it will perfectly complement jambon persillé or a fine charcuterie platter. On the cheese side, its supple tannins harmonize well with creamy soft-ripened cheeses such as Brillat-Savarin or aged Saint-Marcellin.
