

Château Bernon 2023

AOC Médoc, Bordeaux, France

PRESENTATION

The Château Bernon in the place called "Larnac" in Queyrac belonged, at the beginning of the century, to the Ginestet family, former owners of Château Margaux. It was equipped with a vat room, a gantry crane, and a barrel cellar. Before them, it was the Carles family who operated this residence. Serge and Janine CLAIRAC bought this property in 1968; to this day, their 3 children Philippe, Christine, and Maryse DROUILLARD are the heirs.

TASTING

Beautiful intense purple color. Nose open on very ripe red fruit notes. Notes of raspberries and blackcurrants harmoniously dominate. The very round and ample palate testifies to the great maturity of the tannins. The whole is well-balanced and allows for tasting this Médoc right away.
