"Vintage 2013: The 2013 Chateauneuf du Pape les Combes d'arnevels is a fruity, straightforward effort that offers notes of black fruits, dried garrigue, licorice and spice-box. Drink it in its first 5-6 years of life."

"Vintage 2011 - USA
moving to the reds, the 2011 Chateauneuf du Pape les Combes d'Arnevels is a mostly concrete tank-aged blend of Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre. offering up notions of black cherry, new leather, licorice and lots of earthiness, this mediumbodied, fresh effort has solid tannin and good overall focus. it is a solid, possibly outstanding red and should be consumed over the coming 5-6 years. drink now - 2019"

"This is ready-to-drink Châteauneuf. A charming raspberry flavor mixes easily with a dried herb note, while the tannins are supple and the texture is creamy. Drink it over the next 5–6 years."
