Les Domaines Robert Vic, La Source Réserve, IGP Pays d'Oc, Rouge

IGP Pays d'Oc, France

The Vic family has been showcasing Preignes le Vieux since 1905 and the estate is now proof of the bond between man and land. Here's the potted history: Great-grandfather Robert Vic bought the estate in the early 20th century. The fifth generation is now tending vines on 250 hectares of land surrounding the château. In the early 90's, Jérôme and then Aurélie his wife took over the family business.

PRESENTATION

La Source Reserve is a range composed of 3 unavoidable varietal blends that are soft, delicious and expressive. They offer great value and are regularly chosen and approved by our importers and hospitality buyers. These wines are perfectly suited to simple, convivial occasions.

LOCATION

The fruits for this wine were sourced from vineyards located across the Vics' Estate. An array of soil profiles including free draining alluvial clayey subsoils and sands, combined with high sunshine hours make this part of South of France 'home' to the Bordeaux Cabernet Sauvignon and more southern varieties like Grenache Noir and Cinsault - all giving complexity and spice to the wine thanks to the deeply rooted vines.

TERROIR

Typically Mediterranean, warm and sunny with a low rainfall. Winters are mild, summers are hot and usual drought conditions fully matured the grapes. Volcanic soil
