Languedoc, Château La Liquière, Tucade, AOC Faugères, Rouge

AOC Faugères, Languedoc-Roussillon, France

Château La Liquière is a family winery that has been passed on several generations, and is nestled in the natural park of the Haut Languedoc. The vineyard, planted in Mediterranean grapes, is located in the highest part of the appellation Faugères, which is singular by its composition : only schist! Micro-management of the vineyard is done, as well as in the cellar : each block/group of parcels is fermented separately. Certified organic.

PRESENTATION

The name: In the local dialect, a Tucade is a whim or a sudden impulse. In some ways it epitomises the story of this wine which emerged after we fell in love with a cask-aged Mourvèdre!

TERROIR

Schist
Altitude: 150 to 250 metres

WINEMAKING

Harvesting by hand, winemaking in tanks.

AGEING

Ageing in 500-litre barrels.

VARIETALS

Syrah, Mourvèdre
