Nuits-Saint-Georges

Founded in 1893, Maison Edouard Delaunay quickly distinguished itself for the quality of its wines, contributing to Burgundy's international renown for nearly a century. In 2017, Laurent Delaunay, great-grandson of the founder, reconnected with his family legacy, reclaiming the helm of production.

From its historic base in Nuits-Saint-Georges and the Hautes Côtes de Nuits Maison Edouard Delaunay has crafted an extraordinary collection of fine wines from Burgundy's most esteemed terroirs. This meticulous and determined work has earned the winery numerous international accolades for the exceptional quality of its cuvées.
