

Château Pailhas Vieilles Vignes, Saint-Émilion, 2022

AOC Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux, France

Château Pailhas produces an elegant and structured red wine for aging, produced under the prestigious appellation Saint-Émilion Grand Cru. This family estate is operated by SCEA Vignobles Robin Lafugie in Saint-Hippolyte.

PRESENTATION

The Robin Lafugie vineyards are the result of a family history spanning over two centuries and have been passed down by women for four generations. It is with a fierce determination that this vineyard passes on to an entire family the desire to produce exceptional wines. This house has managed to develop in the Libourne region and relies on its experience to uphold the motto that has been theirs since the 19th century.

TERROIR

Clay-limestone soils located at the foot of the hills 12 hectares of vineyard.

IN THE VINEYARD

Average age of the vines: 35 years.

HARVEST

Mechanics.

BLEND

80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc.

WINEMAKING

Traditional alcoholic fermentation in concrete tanks and stainless steel tanks.

AGEING

12 to 16 months in barrels (50% new barrels, 50% barrels of 1 wine and more).

VARIETALS

Merlot 80%, Cabernet franc 20%

TECHNICAL DATA

Surface area of the vineyard: 7.00 ha

Yield: 50.00 hL/ha

Age of vines: 20 years old

TASTING

Ruby color, very expressive aromas of black cherry, slightly toasted, finesse, freshness and very expressive fruitiness on the palate. A gourmet wine that can be served from aperitif to dessert.

