ATTACHIANTE(E) - VINS D'APÉRO A BOIRE FRAIS 2022

Vin de France, Bordeaux, France

PRESENTATION

Attachiant could be translated by "endearing but annoying". If you are told "Attachiant(e)", you will inevitably think of someone close to you, won't you? An endearing but annoying person can sometimes annoy you, sometimes be embarrassing, maybe even tiring, but whom you can't do without and with whom you love to share good times in all simplicity. A vintage to share with our "endearing but annoying" ones in all circumstances. So here's to all our "Attachiants" ones: cheers!

THE VINTAGE

This vintage is exceptional. Despite the high temperatures of the summer and low rainfall, the harvest was of high quality and produced wines as sunny as they are refined.

TERROIR

Among French wines, you can regularly find hidden gems at very affordable prices; they are also wines synonymous with freedom because they are not subject to the constraints of the specifications of Bordeaux appellations, even though the grapes come from plots located near our cooperative cellar.

In spring and summer, it is drunk cold, in autumn and winter, it will be appreciated at room temperature.
