MARRENON, Les Essentiels, Classique, AOC Luberon, Rouge, 2022

AOC Luberon, Vallée du Rhône, France

The liveliness and charming freshness of this Luberon wine come from the Marrenon vineyard, located entirely within a superb Regional Natural Park, on the slopes of the Luberon Massif in the south of France.

PRESENTATION

This Luberon wine draws its lively energy and charming freshness from the Marrenon vineyard, nestled in the heart of a splendid Regional Natural Park, on the slopes of the Luberon Massif in the south of France. The unique liveliness of this wine is inspired by the exceptional terroir of this preserved region, where the vineyard benefits from an exceptional natural environment.

TERROIR

Selected from parcels located on the foothills of the Luberon, these terroirs with limestone shards impart a distinctive specificity to the grapes of this cuvée.

HARVEST

The harvest, carried out in mid-September, is followed by traditional vinification, thus preserving centuries-old methods that contribute to the distinctive quality of this wine.

WINEMAKING

The maceration lasts for a period of 7 to 12 days, with gentle extractions at controlled temperatures between 20°C and 22°C. Only free-run juices are considered, thereby helping to preserve the subtlety of aromas and the quality of the must.

VARIETALS

Syrah 60%, Grenache noir 40%

SERVING

To be enjoyed at a temperature of 18°C, this wine proves to be an ideal partner, whether paired with a rack of lamb seasoned with herbes de Provence or with an appellation cheese.

AGEING POTENTIAL

3 to 5 years

VISUAL APPEARANCE

A deep ruby red color.

AT NOSE

This cuvée presents an intense and elegant nose, revealing aromas of blackcurrant, blackberry, raspberry, and kirsch cherry.
