Bordeaux, Château Terre du Lion, AOC Saint-Julien, Rouge

AOC Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

Gabriel Meffre at Château de Glana is the master behind Terre du Lion. His château that stands opposite Ducru Beaucaillou is one of the rare Crus Bourgeois of the appellation. He has been purchasing properties in Saint Julien and Pauillac for the last 40 years and renovating them, improving the work in the vineyard and making the cellars into buildings that would turn his prestigious neighbours green with envy! A man who is driven by the search for perfection in the wines he makes. Mr Meffre trusts the con

PRESENTATION

The creation of this label was made possible thanks to a partnership with a single property in Saint Julien. In this appellation, the smallest of the left bank, 11 crus classés spread over 85% of the soils. It is said to be one of the most homogenous and stable appellations in terms of quality in the whole of the Bordeaux vineyard. The wines are characterised by their concentration and elegance. Terre du Lion was created to offer a superb, single property wine at an affordable price from this remarkable terroir.

TERROIR

Clay Gravel and sands.

WINEMAKING

Traditional vinification in stainless steel vats.

AGEING

100% aged in barrels, 45% new.

VARIETALS

Cabernet sauvignon 67%, Merlot 27%, Cabernet franc 6%

AGEING POTENTIAL

5 to 10 years

TASTING

The high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon as is so typical to Saint Julien brings the structure and ageing potential to the wine while the Merlot brings the roundness and fruit. The brand new state of the art cellar make this superb wine excel to the level of its prestigious neighbours.
