BOURGOGNE

Mâcon Villages

AOC Mâcon Villages, Bourgogne, France

Suave and floral expression of the Chardonnay grape, the famous variety of white Bourgogne wines.

The vineyards are located mainly on the two mountain sides of the Grosne river valley, between Saint-Gengoux-le-National and Cluny. The particularity of the Mâcon vineyards are the diversity of its soils and exposure to sun. Its grapes come from soils with high limestone content.

In stainless steel vats.

Serving temperature : between 11° and 13°C.

A limpid golden-yellow colour wine with notes of citrus, flowers and white-fleshed fruits. The mouth is suave, floral and refreshing with an elegant finish.

As an aperitif or with antipasti, sushi, risottos, grilled fish, poultry or goats' cheeses.
