AOP Languedoc Pic-Saint-Loup
Red

PRESENTATION

Located in Claret, in Hérault, at the heart of Languedoc, Domaine De Villeneuve is a family estate that highlights all the richness and diversity of Pic Saint-Loup wines. The terroir, composed of limestone soils and scree, benefits from a Mediterranean climate tempered by the influence of the surrounding mountains. The estate practices integrated pest management, favoring manual work and precise vinifications to preserve the authenticity of the fruit. The reds, made from Syrah, Grenache, and Mourvèdre, are powerful and elegant, with notes of black fruits, pepper, and garrigue. The more confidential whites charm with their freshness and balance. An emblematic estate of Pic Saint-Loup, ideal for discovering deep and expressive wines.

VARIETALS

Grenache, Mourvèdre, Syrah

LOCATION

The estate consists of small vineyard plots, most of them under 1 hectare, surrounded by garrigue and woodland.
Age of vines: 35 years old

TERROIR

A unique natural amphitheater made up of south/southeast-facing clay-limestone slopes.

IN THE VINEYARD

Sustainable farming practices, with organic conversion underway since 2022.

HARVEST

WINEMAKING

After sorting in the vineyard, the grapes are brought to the cellar. The Syrah bunches are vinified using whole-cluster maceration. This technique helps preserve the integrity of the berries and avoids crushing during vatting. Maceration lasts about 14 days. Punch-downs and pump-overs are guided by tasting to extract color, tannins, and aromas.

AGEING

Aged for 16 months in oak barrels, 70% of which are new.

SERVING

Serving temperature: 16°C–18°C

AGEING POTENTIAL

3 to 5 years

TASTING

The wine displays a deep ruby color. The nose is fruity and generous, revealing aromas of violet, raspberry, and licorice. On the palate, it is aromatic and rich, with ample volume. Flavors of red fruits and garrigue herbs are supported by elegant, smooth, and subtle tannins. The wine is round, mineral, with a structured body, good intensity, and long persistence.
