AOC Champagne, Champagne, France

Champagne Marc Chauvet is based in Rilly la Montagne, in the heart of the Montagne de Reims. Classified as Premier Cru, it is one of the oldest wine-producing villages in Champagne.

Brother and sister Clotilde and Nicolas took over their parents and brought modernity to the winery. Nicolas takes care of the vineyard with particular attention and manual maintenance, and Clotilde, enologist, elaborates the wines with passion and refines her blends.

PRESENTATION

The Cuvée Rubis, rosé de saignée is a festive wine, with an incomparable style, color and flavor. The wine is made from the maceration of the grapes before pressing, and it is the natural pigments in the skins that give the wine its color. While macerating, the skins release a wide range of aromas.
