Languedoc, Mas Onésime, Le Cinsault, Vin de France, Rouge

Vin de France, VSIG, France

Mas Onésime is located at La Liquière, one of the 7 small towns that are in the Faugères appellation. History started in 1920, with the grandfather of Olivier Villaneuva, current winemaker and owner who joined the winery in 1999. Olivier started in 2003 a business that offers viticultural services and ended up working with names like Bernard Magrez. He created a small company that offers viticultural services, and started to work with names like Bernard Magrez or Michel Rolland.

PRESENTATION

This wine honours the Cinsault.

TERROIR

Schist

WINEMAKING

Harvested by hand, sorted and fully de-stemmed

Grapes received by gravity, separate vinification of parcels

Vats are temperature controlled by a cooling system, punching of the cap, pneumatic pressing, 14 days maceration

Ageing in vat to preserve a fresh and crispy profile

VARIETAL

No sulphites.

Cinsault 100%

TASTING

This Mediterranean grape variety produces a soft, luscious and easy-to-drink wine. Fresh raspberry coulis and grey pepper mingle in the bouquet of aromas, delicately set off by a hint of thyme blossom... from Faugères.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Mediterranean cuisine, ratatouille, lamb with rosemary, marinated vegetables and grilled fish.
