

Château Noaillac 2018

AOC Médoc, Cru Bourgeois Supérieur, Bordeaux, France

The Pagès, Marc, Xavier, Damien, or the wealth of an enlightened mind in a glass of NOAILLAC....

PRESENTATION

Quality is developed from the beginning of the vine's vegetative cycle, during pruning when limiting the grape yield is crucial; quantity is then set aside in favor of quality.

TERROIR

Graves Garonnaises et Pyrénéennes" translates to "Garonne and Pyrenean Gravels.

WINEMAKING

Pre-fermentation maceration. Fermentation duration: 20 days.

AGEING

12 months in French oak barrels.

VARIETALS

Cabernet sauvignon, Merlot, Petit verdot

TECHNICAL DATA

Surface area of the vineyard: 48.72 ha
Yield: 55 hL/ha

TASTING

Ripe and heady on the nose, fully expressive and scented, smells really seductive. Fine but very firm and dense tannins. Slatey finish, long and cool-fruited." - Decanter.
