Southern Rhône, Domaine Durieu, Henri Durieu, AOC Côtes du Rhône Villages Plan de Dieu, Rouge

AOC Côtes du Rhône Villages Plan de Dieu, Vallée du Rhône, France

Domaine Durieu began in the 70s with Paul Durieu as the driving force in the family. The vineyard, in its current state, is relatively young, but the family vineyard has been part of the property for a very long time. The family Avril, which is the family name on the mother's side, came namely to Châteauneuf-du-Pape already in the 1500s and some vines that are still used today are from before the 1st World War.

PRESENTATION

In recent years the winery has gained a solid reputation for both its Châteauneuf-du-Pape, but also for the other well-made Côtes-du-Rhône and especillay Plan de Dieu (Cru of CdR Villageswines). Today, brothers Vincent & François preside at the destiny of the family holdings and are comitted to to modernise, innovate and move up the value chain : the winery uses no pesticides and is regularly rewarded by the wine world's most representative wine guides.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

JEB DUNNUCK 90/100

"The 2018 Côtes du Rhône Villages Plan De Dieu Henri Durieu is a bigger, richer wine with a rocking bouquet of black cherry and blackberry fruits as well as peppered meats, spice, and garrigue nuances. With medium to full body, a round, soft, mouthfilling texture, and beautiful tannins, this pleasure-bent, undeniably delicious 2018 is ready to go yet should keep for 4-6 years, if you're so inclined."
