PULIGNY-MONTRACHET 2016

Its name derives from "Pul" which means "marais": marsh. Puligny is on small pockets of water which prevent building of underground cellars.

LOCATION

Production area : 114,22 ha
Altitude : 230-250 m

TERROIR

This A.O.C. is at the bottom of the hill, on a brown soil from the North of Meursault to the South of Chassagne.

The soil is clayey limestone with a lot of stones.

According to the place, the style is a little different but it often combines elegance and richness. We are lucky to have a representative of all the climats of A.O.C. which are more than twenty one.

Soil : Calcareous Clay

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

88-91pts

"Fresh and appealingly layered aromas grudgingly reveal notes of white peach, lavender, citrus zest and hint of oak. The round, caressing and utterly delicious medium-bodied flavors possess a relatively sophisticated mouth feel before ending in a dry, clean and mildly austere finish that offers very good but not special depth."

Allen Meadows, Burghound, 01/04/2018

Wine Spectator

90pts

"Focused, charming and open, sporting peach, apple and butterscotch flavors. The acidity shines through on the crisp finish. Should come together nicely in a year. Drink now through 2023."

Bruce Sanderson, Wine Spectator, 01/09/2018
