La Vitalis, Domaine Jubain, Rouge, 2021

AOC Cairanne, Vallée du Rhône, France

Sun-drenched hillsides, the scents of garrigue, a mischievous river which changes its spelling... Cairanne is a delightful village, which comes into view around a rocky outcrop and charms visitors with its red, rosé and white wines.

PRESENTATION

The strengths of the Cairanne appellation are a “village” feel, developed by wine-growers over several generations, and a warm, dry climate, which makes for harmonious, full-flavored wines. On the border of two distinct areas, the Cairanne appellation brings together the Syrah so typical of the northern Rhone and the Grenache and Mourvèdre grape varieties of the deep South.

TASTING

There's aromatic richness to this Grenache-dominant blend, suggesting notes of smoked nut, earth and violet alongside intensely ripe black fruit. Black-plum and cherry flavors are silky yet fresh, framed by finely textured but persistent tannins.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Syrah & Grenache is a quintessential red blend calling for red fleshed foods – from beef and lamb to tuna, goose and game, or else fattier cuts of pork. It is amazing with barbecue as a lot of people pick up cedar and wood smoke aromas in the wine that flatter any steak you toss on the barbecue.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

JEB DUNNUCK

"This Cairanne Domaine La Vitalis is a charming, character-filled wine that has classic notes of cured meats, peppery garrigue, and black raspberries. It's not the longest or deepest wine out there, but it has character and should keep for 4-5 years."
