

Château La Haute Claymore, AOC Lussac Saint-Émilion, Rouge, 2022

AOC Lussac Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux, France

Château La Claymore is located in the Lussac-Saint-Émilion appellation. This 45.50 hectare estate has been owned by the Linard family since 2001. The property takes its name from the famous claymore, a large Scottish sword that naturally recalls the British origins of the place, a real battlefield during the Hundred Years' War. The vines are planted on a clay-limestone plateau.

AGEING

The wine is aged in barrels for one third and the rest in stainless steel tanks.

VARIETALS

Merlot 70%, Cabernet franc 30%

TECHNICAL DATA

Age of vines: 25 years old

TASTING

Aromas of red fruits mixed with notes of sweet spices. Round wine with structured tannins. Beautiful aromatic length on the finish.
