Rioja, Spain

Saiaz is a tribute to Sajazarra, a village with a great winemaking tradition and considered one of the most beautiful in Spain. Located in the Haro region, at the confluence of the Agual and Ea rivers, it is surrounded by a vast landscape of vineyards interspersed with buildings of great architectural and cultural value.

PRESENTATION

Made from the single variety Tempranillo, it expresses the identity and terroir of the area. The native hare that appears in its image represents its lively, energetic and vibrant character.

TERROIR

Clay and limestone soils.

WINEMAKING

Fermented in stainless steel vat.

AGEING

100% Tempranillo, aged for 12 months in first and second year French oak casks and for a further 12 months in the bottle.
