

Chateleufe

IGP Atlantique - 2023 - RED

PRESENTATION

Our wines come to life on the slopes of Castelmoron-d'Albret, the smallest parish in France. They take their name from the famous Jeanne d'Albret, a woman with conviction and character, Queen of Navarre and mother of King Henri IV, who owned land and castles in the Entre deux Mers. Heirs of this illustrious personality, our wines are today elaborated with the same passion.

THE WINE

VARIETALS: Merlot

WINEMAKING / AGEING: Traditionals.

TASTING

A beautiful deep garnet colour.

The nose offers aromas of ripe black berries, cherries and a hint of pepper.

On the palate, the wine is medium-bodied, with flavours of red and black fruit, blackcurrant and hints of spice. It has supple tannins and well-balanced acidity.

The finish is moderately long, leaving a pleasant sensation of ripe fruit and spice.

SERVING / FOOD PAIRINGS

SERVING: 17°C

FOOD PAIRINGS: Goes wonderfully well with poultry liver, Teriyaki beef or aubergine gratin.
