Southern Rhône, Same River Twice, Red, Vin de France, Rouge

Vin de France, VSIG, France

Same River Twice Wines was created by James, a wine agent and former importer in Tokyo, in partnership with Laurent, a local vigneron whose family has farmed the area for over 300 years, to make a style of wine for people who love the aromatic richness of our terroir but seek wines with a lighter touch.

Laurent farms the vines and they make the wines together. Their shared obsessions are healthy soil, healthy grapes and blends that show terroir, or provenance, in its truest form. They've worked together s

PRESENTATION

Same River Twice Vin de France Rouge is a red wine from the beautiful, historic wine region of the Ventoux, near Gigondas and Vacqueyras. It's a landscape of hills and mountain, wild Provençal herbs that perfume the air, pine woods, lavender, olive trees, vines, and beautiful light. The dry, sunny Mediterranean climate is perfect for growing grapes.

TASTING

It captures the aromatic richness and balancing freshness of the terroir and is made with a light touch. Grenache provides the flesh, the strawberry and raspberry fruit and a dash of herbes de Provence, while Syrah provides the cool, mineral notes of blackberry and cassis. It's bone dry, medium-bodied, with bright, juicy acidity and gentle tannins. Clean and persistent, it has youthful energy.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Red meat, poultry, veal, risotto.
