RIJCKAERT ROUVE

AOC Mâcon Fuissé

White

PRESENTATION

Former winemaker of the Verget house, Jean Rijckaert founded his own estate in 1998, in Leynes, south of the Mâconnais. The vineyard extends over 9.5 hectares, spread between Viré-Clessé, Mâcon-Lugny, and Saint-Véran in Burgundy, and Côtes du Jura and Arbois in Jura. The estate favors sustainable agriculture, respecting the authenticity of the terroirs. The whites of the Mâconnais are mineral and of great purity, while those of Jura, aged in barrels, offer beautiful aromatic complexity and remarkable typicity. What distinguishes us: mastery of Chardonnay in two different regions, offering a varied aromatic palette and a unique style.

VARIETAL

Chardonnay 100%

LOCATION

East-facing overall exposure.

TERROIR

Diverse clay-limestone soils, predominantly red clays and hard limestone fragments ("chailles").

IN THE VINEYARD

Essential vine care includes thoughtful soil work and precise, environmentally respectful treatments.

HARVEST

Manual harvesting.

WINEMAKING

Fermentation takes place in oak barrels after gentle pressing of the grapes.

AGEING

Aged on fine lees in oak barrels for 10 months, then matured in stainless steel vats for a further 3 months.

SERVING

Serving temperature: 10 to 12°C

AGEING POTENTIAL

2 to 3 years

TASTING

Golden with green reflections. The nose offers notes of peach, melon, and butter. On the palate, the attack is bright and lively, leading to generous volume and a long, aromatic finish. A wine that balances freshness with richness and depth.

VISUAL APPEARANCE

Golden with green highlights.

AT NOSE

Peach, melon, buttery nuances.

ON THE PALATE

Lively and broad, with good length and aromatic persistence.
