

Dom Brial

COLLECTIF VIGNERON DEPUIS 1923

Dom Brial, Rivesaltes Grenat 2022

AOP Rivesaltes, Languedoc-Roussillon, France

PRESENTATION

Founded in 1923 in Baixas, a small Catalan village, the Vignobles Dom Brial bring together 200 proud and committed winemakers. These enthusiasts generously cultivate their terroirs in the continuity of their spiritual master Dom Brial, a Benedictine monk, a child of the village, and a benefactor of the municipality. Recognized for their expertise, they maintain and share, with sweat on their brows, small arid and stony plots over nearly 2000 hectares. Committed and responsible, they obtained their certification in sustainable development in 2010.

TERROIR

The High Terraces: Terraces of Rolled Pebbles on clayey soil. Anchored in the identity of the House, the Natural Sweet Wines make the richness and uniqueness of our wine region. The Muscat undoubtedly has the highest notoriety of its territory.

WINEMAKING

Alcoholic fermentation in concrete tanks followed by fortification to stop the fermentation.

VARIETAL

Grenache noir 100%

TASTING

Intense garnet color. This naturally sweet wine is marked by aromas of blackcurrant, fig, black olive, all enhanced by roasted notes of coffee and cocoa. Beautiful freshness in the mouth and nice balance.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Will ideally accompany a chocolate fondant. Surprising with cheeses such as goat or ewe's milk tomme.

CLASSIC FOOD AND WINE PAIRINGS
