

DOMAINE de TRÉVALLON

FAMILLE DÜRRBACH

Domaine de Trévallon rouge 2001

Vin de Pays des Bouches du Rhône,

PRESENTATION

Glorious year. Three weeks of the Mistral wind in August that concentrated the grapes.

HARVEST

Start of the harvest: September 17th

End of the harvest: September 28th

VARIETALS

Cabernet sauvignon 50%, Syrah 50%

TASTING

Trevallon 2001 has a powerful structure, coated with aromatic tannins, ending on the scrubland and truffle. Build for lasting decades

07/2014

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

"No one spits, the wine is so smooth and well-balanced, the idea of wasting one precious drop of this nectar incomprehensible."

<http://www.winerist.com/>, 19/11/2012

18/20

"This still has an impressively deep colour at 12 years old. Little fade. There is a big wafting nose full of dense fruit. The palate is full of sweet cassis with spice and roasted meat. This is complex, rich and earthy and lovely to drink now. For me the Cabernet comes through a bit more than the Syrah in this vintage but Trevallon is a wine that can taste of Bordeaux, Rhone, Burgundy and Barolo from bottle to bottle (often in the same vintage). 18 points."

<http://www.farrvintners.com/blog>, 15/07/2013

"A l'ouverture ce vin est vêtu d'une robe lourde, carmin au coeur, s'éclaircissant au bord ; il développe surtout un nez formidable fait de mûres chaudes, de cuir tiède et d'un coulis de groseille frais. En bouche c'est presque plus formidable encore, franc, intense, avec une finale fraîche et brillante."

Antoine Mantez, <http://secretsepicure.blogspot.fr>, 14/01/2014

