Domaine Julien Masquin, Humeur, AOP Côtes du Rhône, White

AOP Côtes du Rhône, Vallée du Rhône, France

Paul Masquin, grandfather of current proprietor, bought a few vines in Courthézon in 1936. However, busy with the creation of a brush company, he entrusted them in sharecropping to neighboring winegrowers. Caressing the dream of making his own wines, his grandson Julien took over the estate in 1998. He devoted all his efforts to the return of sustainable farming methods and environmentally friendly practices. A decade later, the first vintage of Domaine Julien Masquin came to life.

PRESENTATION

The Grenache and Mourvèdre grapes are planted in the Saint Georges / les Saintes Vierges area, a terroir of rolled pebbles and red clay. The Syrahs are planted on the sandy terroir of Les Cassanets, giving them a fine, well-balanced texture.

LOCATION

The grapes for this bottling are hand-picked on a selection of vines grown in lieu-dit "Les Bédines"

TERROIR

Terroir consisting in refreshing red sands and soft rocks/gravelly zaffer from tertiary sediments, enabling for the crisp and zesty notes abundant in this gracious white wine.

TASTING

Lightly colored, this Côtes-du-Rhône is primarily Grenache Blanc brought up in tank and old barrels. Vibrant citrus, mint, and subtle mineral notes all emerge from the glass, and it's clean, crisp, and refreshing on the palate, with both richness and freshness. It's a solid effort.
