Château la Mascaronne, AOC Côtes de Provence, Rosé

AOC Côtes de Provence, Provence, France

Château La Mascaronne is located in Le Luc in Provence, on a rare, unspoiled site of exceptional beauty, in the shape of a circus. From the property, the view is magnificent, offering an unparalleled spectacle on the terraces and the most beautiful slopes of the estate, bordered by numerous olive trees.

PRESENTATION

Château La Mascaronne Rosé is a real regional Rosé: its quality is due not only to the grape varieties that go into its blend, but also to the characteristics of the soils on which they are planted. The emblematic grape varieties of Provence: Grenache, Cinsault, but also Syrah, Vermentino and Mourvèdre, are harvested at optimum maturity.

TASTING

Château La Mascaronne Rosé 2020 presents a pretty typical Provencal color, a luminous pink, which reflects its aromatic complexity. White peach, hawthorn flower and lemon notes compose a nose of beautiful finesse, while on the palate, the wine is suave, of an intense and elegant structure, with a delicate and fresh length.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Delicious as an aperitif or with a monkfish tail with bacon, red mullet fillets and grilled white meats, this rosé has the particularity of being able to keep for several years.
