

CHATEAU
LARCIS DUCASSE
1^{er} Grand Cru Classé

'Murmure de Larcis Ducasse', Saint-Emilion Grand Cru, 2019

AOC Saint-Emilion grand cru, Bordeaux, France

Murmure de Larcis Ducasse 2019 is the "second" wine of Château Larcis Ducasse, a prestigious Premier Grand Cru Classé from Saint-Émilion. Coming from the young vines of the estate, it is a red Bordeaux wine characterized by its freshness.

TERROIR

The terroir of Murmure de Larcis Ducasse 2019 is identical to that of the Grand Vin, as it comes from the same exceptional plots located on the Côte Pavie in Saint-Émilion. It is one of the most famous and highest quality terroirs on the Right Bank of Bordeaux. The vineyard extends over several types of soils, each bringing a unique complexity to the wine: Plateau & clay-limestone soil, South-facing terraces.

BLEND

98% Merlot, 2% Cabernet Franc.

AGEING

In barrels of 225 and 500 liters of French oak for 16 months.

VARIETALS

Merlot 98%, Cabernet franc 2%

TECHNICAL DATA

Surface area of the vineyard: 10.00 ha

Age of vines: 35 years old

Aging in barrels: 1 month

TASTING

A deep and vibrant ruby color with clear violet reflections. The attack is expressive and immediate. Dominated by blackberry, black cherry, and ripe plum, enhanced by indulgent notes of blueberry pie. Delicate floral touches (violet), sweet spices (five spices), subtle hints of tobacco leaf, cedar, coffee grounds, and dark chocolate. The tannins are fine but firm, perfectly integrated with balanced acidity. Long finish with plenty of freshness and a subtle note of minerality.

