Voyage dans les vignes, Mozaik, AOP Anjou, Red, 2017

AOP Anjou, Vallée de la Loire et Centre, France

Through the hard work of Jo Pithon, its emblematic owner, the Domaine Pithon-Paillé has created a place of choice among the reference domains in Anjou. Its credo? Terroir. Each wine, although made from the same grape variety, expresses itself differently. In these wines, it is the combination of the soils and the climate that works and everything is done to maintain the spirit of sharing. Organic wines.

PRESENTATION

The originality of our cuvée Mozaïk is an assembly of Cabernet franc from two great terroirs and subsoil of Anjou: schist of Anjou "black" and limestone of Anjou "white".

LOCATION

Left bank of the Loire river.

TERROIR

Limestone and black schist.

WINEMAKING

In order to get a gentle extraction of aromas and tannins, grape maceration is soft and smooth.

AGEING

The fermentation takes place in tanks and the aging has been done in neutral French oaks. A drop of sulfur is added before bottling to preserve the purity of our wines.

VARIETAL

Cabernet franc 100%

GM: No.

Contains sulphites. Does not contain egg or egg products. Does not contain milk or milk-based products.

SERVING

16°C / 61°F

TASTING

A garnet red color, a bouquet mixed by the aromas of red fruits and black fruits. The mouthfeel is structured with beautiful acidity and a little tannic.

FOOD PAIRINGS

The Mozaïk Rouge goes very well with red meats and character (like lamb), also sauced dish can be enjoyed with this older vintages.
