

Le Dropt

IGP Atlantique - 2024 - SWEET WHITE

PRESENTATION

Once upon a time in the picturesque region bordering the Dropt River, a vintner dreamed of crafting a wine that captured the essence of the land. With passion and dedication, he cultivated vineyards that basked in the golden sun, naming his creation "Le Dropt." Each bottle, an IGP Atlantique treasure, held whispers of the river's gentle flow and the lush, verdant landscape. "Le Dropt" became a symbol of harmony between nature and craftsmanship, enchanting wine lovers with its unique character and story. And so, with every sip, the tale of the Dropt River and its surrounding beauty lived on, in the hearts of those who savored "Le Dropt."

THE WINE

VARIETALS: Sémillon 100%

WINEMAKING / AGEING: Traditionals.

TASTING

The wine boasts a rich ruby red hue, captivating the eye. On the nose, it unfurls a delightful tapestry of mocha notes, intriguing and inviting.

It is full-bodied on the palate, with a subtle hint of woodiness that melds seamlessly with the vanilla aromas.

The experience is rounded off by smooth, well-integrated tannins that add depth and complexity to this exquisite blend.

SERVING / FOOD PAIRINGS

SERVING: 16°C

FOOD PAIRINGS: Red meat, pasta and pizzas.

