

Carrelot des Amants

AOP BRULHOIS - 2025 - ROSÉ

PRESENTATION

In the very old villages of the South-West, the narrowest alleyways were called “carrelots.” It was there, in the shade of the stone walls, that lovers would meet...

Legend has it that Queen Margot and her lover, Charles de Balzac, known as “Bel Entraguel,” Lord of the Bastide de Dunes, were once caught enjoying a glass of Brulhois wine. A symbol of forbidden and passionate love, our Carrelot des Amants range delicately embodies the singular character of South-West wines. s amours interdits et passionnés, notre gamme Carrelot des Amants incarne avec délicatesse le caractère singulier des vins du Sud-Ouest.

THE WINE

VARIETALS: Merlot 50%, Côt 30%, Cabernet franc 20%

WINEMAKING / AGEING: Grapes harvested at dawn. Free-run and pressed rosé. Clarification by flotation. Low-temperature vinification (16–18°C).

TASTING

Carrelot des Amants Rosé reveals a beautiful pale pink color. The nose charms with aromas of grapefruit and strawberry. The palate is lively and refreshingly crisp.

SERVING / FOOD PAIRINGS

SERVING: Serve between 8° and 10°C.

FOOD PAIRINGS: A rosé to enjoy as an aperitif, but also with salads, grilled dishes, plancha-cooked fish, or young goat’s or cow’s milk cheeses.
