

Arômes de Pavie 2025

AOC Saint-Emilion grand cru, Bordeaux, France

PRESENTATION

Aromas of Pavie" becomes, starting from the 2005 vintage, the label of the second wine of Château Pavie. This new label succeeds that of "Château Tour Simard", in order to facilitate the identification of the wine by consumers. This wine mainly comes from young vines under 10 years old as well as efforts of selection from the first wine. We provide the same care as for the first wine, both in viticulture and vinification.

TERROIR

Dedicated plot, located on the limestone plateau of Saint-Emilion, 85 m above the level of the Dordogne: clay-limestone soil above asteriated limestone.

WINEMAKING

Wooden thermoregulated vats. Malolactic fermentation in barrels.

AGEING

50% new barrels and 50% barrels of a wine.

VARIETALS

Merlot 50%, Cabernet franc 50%

TECHNICAL DATA

Surface area of the vineyard: 13.5 ha

Age of vines: 32 years old

TASTING

"This shows density and beauty in the integration of tannins and fruit. Medium-bodied with attractive blue fruit and a dark, earthy finish. Lightly salty. 50% merlot and 50% cabernet franc."- James Suckling
