

Loire, Chateau de Coulaïne, Clos du Turpenay, AOC Chinon, Rouge

AOC Chinon, Vallée de la Loire et Centre, France

Chateau de Coulaïne is located on the famous terroir from the Véron in the Val de Loire, and follows a very old family wine tradition, never interrupted since 1300.

Taken over by Etienne de Bonnaventure as early as 1988, the vineyard has expanded and currently 12 hectares in organic farming, a personal choice that fits perfectly in the constant search for a harmonious balance between tradition and modernity.

PRESENTATION

This historic clos is a massal selection made between 1960 and 1995 on 2 ha.

TERROIR

The terroir, known and planted since the Middle Ages, is composed of clay and millarges or yellow tuff facing south-east.

IN THE VINEYARD

This cuvée is a blend of parcels from the hillsides and plateaus near the château. What they have in common is their terroir of limestone sands and silts, with the tuffeau bedrock still present at depth. This wine reflects the work of the winemaker: it is the fruit of the plant, its terroir and the hand of the man who guides them.

WINEMAKING

Manual harvest.

Cold maceration in concrete vats with indigenous yeasts, without over-extraction to preserve fruitiness, no fining, wine filtered.

AGEING

12 months in oak (10% new oak barrel) and one year in Foudre barrel.
