

Château La Chapelle aux Moines, 2022

AOC Saint-Emilion grand cru, Bordeaux, France

PRESENTATION

The vineyard dates back to the 19th century. The vineyard has belonged to the same family since then. It is located on the eastern slopes of Saint-Emilion and is thus ideally situated. The clay soil helps to produce a fruity and expressive wine with a beautiful texture on the palate.

TERROIR

Sandy-loamy on deep clays.

WINEMAKING

Traditional vinification in coated concrete tanks, temperature-controlled. Maceration for a minimum of 21 days. Aerated pump-overs, rack and returns, 3-week maceration.

AGEING

12 months with 1/3 in tanks and 2/3 in oak barrels (2/3), including 20% new barrels, 20% of 1-year-old wine, and 60% of barrels of two years and older.

VARIETALS

Merlot 70%, Cabernet franc 15%, Cabernet-sauvignon 9%, Malbec 6%

TECHNICAL DATA

Surface area of the vineyard: 9.5 ha

TASTING

Ruby-colored dress. Nose with fruity notes enhanced with nutmeg. Soft attack, well-coated tannins, aromatic finish.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

92

James Suckling

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92

Wine Enthusiast

