Burgundy, Domaine Denis Fouquerand et Fils, Derrière Montbard, AOC Bourgogne Hautes Côtes de Beaune, Rouge

AOC Bourgogne Hautes Côtes de Beaune, Bourgogne, France

The Fouquerand family comes from a very old La Rochepot family, emancipated by the seigneur du Village Charles d'Augermes, Marquis de Fargis in 1629. This family has remained on the land of their ancestors, perpetuating their winegrowing know-how and tradition.

PRESENTATION

The vineyards of the Hautes Côtes de Beaune are planted on the well-exposed slopes of the hills overlooking the coast. The average altitude is 300 to 400 meters. Climatic conditions are favorable to vine-growing. The Bourgogne Hautes Côtes de Beaune appellation was instituted at the request of producers, by decree in 1961, thus personalizing the Burgognes of their hillsides. They are obtained through a double test: tasting and analysis.

TERROIR

The sometimes steep slopes are frequently covered with limestone scree.
