DOMAINE DE L'ARGENTEILLE

AOP Languedoc Terrasses du Larzac
Red

PRESENTATION

Located in Languedoc, Domaine De L'Argenteille strives to reveal all the richness of its terroir through precise and elegant wines. Exploiting plots at altitude, the estate benefits from a temperate climate that allows for beautiful freshness in the wines. Viticulture is conducted in sustainable viticulture, with meticulous soil work and manual harvesting. Vinifications favor the expression of fruit and the finesse of tannins, thanks to gentle extractions and aging in tanks and barrels. The reds are deep and aromatic, with notes of red fruits, licorice, and spices, while the whites charm with their minerality and balance. An estate to discover for lovers of structured and elegant Languedoc wines.

VARIETALS

Mourvèdre 50%, Syrah 40%, Grenache noir
10%

LOCATION

Perched at an altitude of 536 meters, the Rocher des Deux Vierges stands as a striking natural stronghold among the foothills of the Larzac plateau.
Age of vines: 40 years old

TERROIR

Clay-limestone soil with rolled pebbles originating from Jurassic limestone bedrock.

IN THE VINEYARD

Throughout the growing season, the vineyard is managed with great care: soils are worked to maintain vitality, yield is controlled for optimal concentration, and sustainable practices are favored. Harvesting is done manually, ensuring that only the best grapes reach the cellar.

HARVEST

Manual harvest with meticulous sorting of the grapes.

WINEMAKING

Traditional fermentation with temperature control. A 40-day maceration enhances structure and aromatic intensity.

AGEING

Aged for 18 months in oak barrels, adding depth and finesse.

SERVING

Serving Temperature: 14–16°C

AGEING POTENTIAL

3 to 5 years

TASTING

Deep red color with garnet highlights. The nose is complex and expressive, revealing aromas of garrigue herbs, spices, and ripe fruit. The palate is full-bodied and rounded, with silky tannins and a delicate oak influence that harmonizes beautifully with the wine's natural freshness. The finish is long, spicy, and indulgent.
