Domaine La Colombette, Le Rosé 9%, IGP Pays d'Hérault, Rosé

IGP Pays d'Hérault, France

A family estate for 4 generations, La Colombette is located at the gates of Béziers, facing the Mediterranean Sea. For more than 30 years, François Pugibet and son Vincent have been recognized for the quality of their wines and their innovations. Today, Vincent is focusing on the development of new resistant grape varieties that allow for pesticide-free viticulture.

PRESENTATION

Want something a little lighter to drink over the summer without compromising on taste and without going completely 'dry'? Partly in defiance to the recent norms and partly out of respect for the old ways, Vincent & François seek to return to the origins of winemaking and to offer more approachable and balanced wines that are low in alcohol.

TERROIR

The fruit for this wine was carefully selected from early ripening Grenache Noir vineyard sites that express ripe flavors at lower sugar levels.

WINEMAKING

All grapes were crushed, pressed and settled for 48hrs prior to cool fermentation in stainless steel tanks to ensure the wine has bright aromatics and fresh fruit flavors, without compromising the palate weight, texture and length.

TASTING

More than just trendy, this wine is a perennial classic: bone-dry in structure and featuring notes fresh flowers, a racy minerality, dry flavors of pear juice, pink grapefruit and strawberry-and-cream sweets. It's a refreshing alternative in the sunshine and while al-fresco dining.
