Where is this technique is being used , the plot of vine is called Clos d'Entre. This single vineyard is very specific to Château de Parnay, which has the same owner as Château de Princé

TASTING

The robe of this cuvée is pale yellow.

On the nose, the notes of exotic fruits are expressed with a lot of freshness, and are perfectly associated with the limestone minerality, characteristic of the terroir.

On the palate, the attack is smooth and elegant with a very expressive fruitiness and make us travel in the Loire orchards. The acidity gives this wine a perfect balance and a sparkling and pleasant mouth.
