

Hôtel de la Bourse

IGP Comté Tolosan - 2022 - WHITE

PRESENTATION

In the south-western region of France, a group of vineyard owners blended traditional and modern techniques to produce an exceptional white wine, seeking to elevate its prestige and reputation. They chose the iconic Hôtel de la Bourse in Bordeaux, a symbol of commerce and tradition for centuries, as the perfect emblem to represent their product. Today, each bottle of their wine proudly bears the Hôtel's seal, a must-have on any prestigious table.

THE WINE

VARIETALS: Colombard, Sauvignon blanc, Ugni blanc, Gros manseng

WINEMAKING / AGEING: Traditionals.

TASTING

This wine is a true delight for the senses. On the nose, it offers floral aromas that perfectly complement its elegant, aromatic profile. The taste is just as impressive, with peach notes that provide a subtle sweetness and a refreshing acidity. The wine finishes strong with exotic notes that leave a lasting impression. Overall, this is a beautifully balanced wine that will impress even the most discerning palate.

SERVING / FOOD PAIRINGS

SERVING: 10°C.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Seafood, grilled salmon, pasta dishes with a creamy lemon sauce and cheeses such as goat cheese.

