

Château Perruchon

AOP Lussac Saint-Emilion - 2020 - RED

PRESENTATION

Close to the famous medieval city of Saint-Emilion and its vineyards, this appellation has the same hilly landscape, dotted with groves and hamlets, and a similar terroir. As it should be in Libournais, Lussac is an appellation dedicated to red wines, and it often favours the Merlot grape variety, as this vintage brilliantly reminds us.

THE WINE

VARIETALS: Merlot

WINEMAKING / AGEING: Traditionals.

TASTING

Dark purple colour.

The nose mixes small black fruits with hints of liquorice.

The palate is full-bodied, firm but pleasant, and shows elegance and persistence.

SERVING / FOOD PAIRINGS

SERVING: 16°C.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Cheeses and grilled or roasted red meats are perfect matches.
