Les Fleurs, Rosé, 2021

Vin de France, VSIG, France

As we head into beautiful summer weather, there's no better way to celebrate than to be outside. And, while it's great to celebrate and raise a glass on your own, why not invite family and friends over to join in the fun of a Garden Party surrounded by meadow and wild flowers?

PRESENTATION

"Vine growing and wine are in my blood. With my native Burgundian background, moving to the South of France and a warmer climate was an opportunity to write my own story". This idea of beautiful summer weather was our guide line when Bruno Lafon produced this wine full of sunshine flavors and fragrant Mediterranean scents.

GLASS BOTTLE PRINTING is an industrial art enhancing the beauty and increasing the value of a product for companies and wineries. Silkscreen wine bottle printing is ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY and elegant - our glass manufacturer specialized screen printing press uses only organic inks that produce an intense color and tactile feel to our bottles. This process allows for fine detail in our design and overcomes labeling challenges such as tapered or multi-faceted bottles.
