Rioja, Spain

This single-varietal Garnacha from the old vines of Alto Najerilla is called Saiaz, after the beautiful village where our winery is located, Sajazarra. It is a beautiful village surrounded by nature, an imposing setting over which the birds of the area flap their wings.

PRESENTATION

Hence its image, which is not only fresh and full of vitality, but also as light as the flight of the birds that soar through the skies over our Rioja Alta vineyards.

Its fresh, juicy and lively character is the result of the wide open spaces of the Rioja highlands and the long winemaking tradition that has survived at the foot of the mountain range.
