

Château La Grâce Dieu Saint-Émilion Grand Cru Rouge 2020

AOC Saint-Émilion grand cru, Bordeaux, France

PRESENTATION

Saint-Émilion's history is deeply rooted in religion, beginning with the arrival of the monk Émilion in the late 8th century AD. Originally from Vannes, he settled there as a hermit. After his death, religious life flourished, with the establishment of numerous convents and churches.

Thus, in the Middle Ages, Cistercian monks established a priory at this site, which they named "A La Grâce de Dieu." This priory, which no longer exists, gave its name to Château La Grâce Dieu.

TERROIR

The vineyard is located on the western slope of the town of Saint-Émilion. Clay-limestone soil over astéiate limestone (sand, fossils, etc.). Colluvial clay-limestone soil. Sandy brown soil with a sandy-clay subsoil.

IN THE VINEYARD

the cultivation methods are traditional reasoned and respect the soil, the vine and the auxiliary fauna.

Manual leaf stripping, green harvesting depending on the year.

WINEMAKING

Plot vinification in thermoregulated concrete vats. Post-fermentation maceration: 8 to 12 days depending on the tasting.

AGEING

14 to 16 months, 60% in barrels (French oak, fine grain, medium heating) renewed by thirds and 40% in vats.

VARIETALS

Merlot 85%, Cabernet franc 15%
