DOMAINE BERGERON

PRESENTATION

Domaine Bergeron is a family-run winery located in Émeringes, between Fleurie and Juliéna, in the Beaujolais region. Established over 85 years ago, the estate has been managed by the Bergeron family for four generations. The vineyard spans 27 hectares and produces a variety of Beaujolais crus, as well as Beaujolais-Émeringes wines. The domaine follows sustainable farming practices and is certified High Environmental Value (HVE). All grapes are hand-harvested, ensuring optimal fruit quality. The range includes red, white, rosé, and sparkling wines, with notable crus such as Chénas, Morgon, Juliéna, Moulin-à-Vent, and Saint-Amour. As a member of the Vignerons Indépendants (Independent Winemakers of France), the estate upholds a strong commitment to authentic, environmentally respectful viticulture.

VARIETAL

Gamay 100%

LOCATION

Vineyards located between the communes of Chénas and La Chapelle-de-Guinchay.

Age of vines: 10 à 50 years old

TERROIR

In the south, the gently rolling hills are composed mainly of clay soils, sometimes with limestone. In the north, the soils are mostly sandy and of granitic origin.

WINEMAKING

Long maceration.

AGEING

Aged in tanks.

SERVING

14 to 16°C

AGEING POTENTIAL

3 to 5 years

TASTING

Deep garnet red in color, this wine opens with aromas of red and black fruits, followed by toasted and spicy nuances on the second nose. On the palate, the attack is smooth and fruity, with well-structured tannins. The finish is long and persistent.

FOOD PAIRINGS

This wine pairs well with red meats, game, slow-cooked dishes, and aged cheeses.
