Vino Nobile di Montepulciano D.O.C.G., Italy

Icaro is in Montepulciano, in a corner of Tuscany bordering Umbria, a corner that still maintains its authentic nature and uncontaminated beauty. It is a territory where there are no large factories, but small shops, artisans and a culture of hospitality.

Montepulciano is a perfectly preserved small centre, so much so that it is called the Pearl of the Renaissance because of its beautiful Renaissance buildings. As a centre for art, music and full of history, Montepulciano is also one of the oldest area

PRESENTATION

Icaro stretches over 51 ha. 22 of these are vineyards in an amphitheatre layout surrounding our winery, at an altitude of 450 m.

Soil studies carried out by Dr. Francesco Lizio enable us to know everything about our vineyards and we work in order to respect and enhance their morphological characteristics.
