The 70's with Bob Dylan, Neal Young and others captured the spirit of Bruno's care-free generation. He explains: "At this time we all dreamt of a better world, imagining with a little music we could change everything. Our elders during this period, mainly in Burgundy but also elsewhere in France, without any marketing or financial preoccupation were writing some of the most beautiful pages of winemaking history. They were the real Rockstar's, producing cult wines still enjoyed by wine lovers today. This wa

PRESENTATION

'Le Coeur a ses raisons' and 'Earth Song' reflect a life's journey into wine, a journey that had no reason to begin with but which has become a journey of discovery and passion. This is the first wine I have created in a career that has spanned 30 years. It is with humility that I can finally put my name to this magnificent wine and claim it as my own. Welcome to my journey". Sharon-Louise Lafon.

LOCATION

On the village of Magalas

TERROIR

Villafranchiens terroir - clay and river pebbles - North / North West exposure

IN THE VINEYARD

Organic viticulture, cordon de royat pruning...and of course manual harvesting

WINEMAKING

This maverick wine is made with 30% whole bunches of grapes.

AGEING

Aged in stainless steel vat.

16°C/61F

AGEING POTENTIAL

2 to 3 years

TASTING

Light colour, subtle flavours and a lovely texture. Complex and seductive aromas of tea, maraschino cherries and plums lead to vibrant flavours of fruit, cedar and spice that melt into a soft tannic texture. The wine is harmonious, with bold waves of strawberry and redcurrant notes meeting plum and spice aromas.
