WINE SELECTION

Champagne, Champagne Gounel Lassalle, 29 Parcelles, AOC Champagne premier cru, Effervescent Brut Nature Rosé

AOC Champagne premier cru, Champagne, France

Champagne Gounel-Lassalle is located in the Montagne de Reims, in the 1er Cru of Chigny-les-Roses. The vineyard was founded in 1870, and was taken over by 4th generation Arnaud Gounel in the 2000s, with his wife Sophie Lassalle, who later joined him in 2016. In the cooperative until 2018, when they built their own cellar. They now run 5 hectares together, mainly planted with Pinot Meunier!

TASTING

The color is orange pink, with salmon-pink reflections. This champagne is true to its nature as a Rosé, with aromas of strawberry, tangerine, kumquat, carnation, cherry, and a few accents of spice (pepper-paprika). The taste is a fresh, plump and crisp Rosé! Raspberry, strawberry and pepper are present alongside orange and kumquat. Its mid-palate is fruity, with a nice chewiness and a long finish. There is a delicate balance between the chalky freshness and the fruitiness, delivering a slightly salty finish with spicy relief.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Pumpkin soup and scallops, roasted cod fillet with parsnip purée, filet mignon of veal with a reduced morel sauce, beef and shiitake cassolette, brie de Meaux
