DOMAINE THOMAS GERARD

AOP Puligny-Montrachet Premier Cru La Garenne
White

PRESENTATION

Created by Gérard's grandfather, Hippolyte Thomas, Domaine Gérard Thomas is located in Saint-Aubin, a winegrowing village in the south of Côte de Beaune, in the heart of the Côte des Blancs. This 12-hectare family estate is now run by Gérard Thomas and his two daughters, Anne-Sophie and Isabelle, who represent the fourth generation. The vineyard, mainly planted with Chardonnay, extends over the communes of Saint-Aubin, Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet, and produces a wide range of great white wines.

VARIETAL

Chardonnay 100%

TERROIR

The vines are often planted on marl-rich clay-limestone soils, which favor expressive, structured white wines.

IN THE VINEYARD

Key vineyard practices include canopy management, precise treatments, and soil care tailored to the mineral-rich soils.

HARVEST

Manual harvest.

WINEMAKING

Whole-cluster pressing using a pneumatic press. Both alcoholic and malolactic fermentations take place in oak barrels (20% new). Bâtonnage (lees stirring) is performed from November to March. After 10 months, the wine is racked, fined with bentonite clay for three weeks, filtered, and then bottled by the estate.

AGEING

10 months in oak barrels, with 20% new oak.

SERVING

Serve between 12 and 14°C.

AGEING POTENTIAL

5 to 10 years

TASTING

An intense and complex nose reveals aromas of white fruits and acacia flower, supported by a fine minerality and a light touch of vanilla. The freshness of the terroir and the zest of lemon bring vibrancy to a full-bodied palate, leading to a long, dynamic finish.

FOOD PAIRINGS

This wine is superb with:

Foie gras, Lobster and langoustine, Pan-seared or grilled sea fish
