

CHATEAU BEAUREGARD POMEROL

Château Beauregard Pomerol Rouge 2020

AOC Pomerol, Bordeaux, France

PRESENTATION

The history of Beauregard dates back to the 12th century and to the Knights Hospitaller of Saint John of Jerusalem, to whom we owe the famous Templar Cross, emblem of Beauregard. Active in the Pomerol region and owners of a small manor, they already cultivated these lands. On this site, the Beauregard family had a first building built five centuries later, which was replaced in the Napoleonic era by the current Château: a magnificent Girondine Charterhouse, which opens onto a terrace with two dovecotes overlooking the moats and a very beautiful park, work of a pupil of Victor Louis, architect of the Grand Théâtre de Bordeaux. Another estate owned by the Moulin and Cathiard families, Château Pavillon Beauregard has benefited from the renovations at Château Beauregard. It has been vinified in the same vat cellar in Pomerol since 2015. The estate, located at Néac, a commune adjacent to Pomerol, carries the Lalande de Pomerol appellation and covers 12 hectares (29.6 acres) on a clay-gravel plateau containing a hardpan subsoil.

IN THE VINEYARD

Manual sorting, high-frequency destemmer, laser optical sorting table. The harvest goes through cold chambers to lower the temperature to 6°C.

WINEMAKING

The gravity-fed vat receives the berries through a small 3 hl bin with the help of a lift. 22 thermoregulated conical concrete vats receive and preserve the harvest, individually, plot by plot.

AGEING

18 months in new barrels (50%) of French oak from 5 different cooperages. Aging partly in terracotta jars.

VARIETALS

Merlot 70%, Cabernet franc 30%

TECHNICAL DATA

Surface area of the vineyard: 17.50 ha
Age of vines: 35 years old
Aging in barrels: 1 month

TASTING

Thanks to an exceptional climate, this vintage gives birth to a wine of remarkable intensity, depth, and freshness. Its great maturity, aromatic complexity, and persistence undoubtedly rank it among the greatest achievements of the estate.
